

Presidential Tour of Quincy & Boston

& Brunch at Phillips Old Colony House Restaurant

Sunday, April 27, 2008

Welcome Spring with this historic day trip. We'll begin the day in Quincy, with a tour of Adams National Historical Park, home of two of our nation's presidents... John Adams and John Quincy Adams. See their birthplaces, the Old House and the United First Parish Church, the final resting place of the presidents. Then it's on to Sunday brunch at Phillips Old Colony House Restaurant, offering a menu to remember. Following brunch, we'll travel to the JFK Library and Museum for a guided tour. The Museum portrays the life, leadership and legacy of President Kennedy.

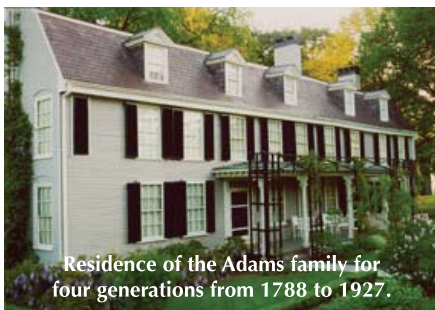

Don't miss out on this historic day trip!

Your Presidential Tour will include:

- Deluxe motorcoach transportation.
- Beverages served onboard.
- Admission and escorted tours of the Kennedy Library & Museum AND the Adams National Historical Park.
- Full Sunday Brunch at the Phillips Old Colony House Restaurant.
